On Karl Marx (Frantz Fanon, re-reading Sartre’s Critique from a Marxist employment and criticism and just a few notes on that, 1951-1981, jottings by Karl Marx, in a set of Library Works in France and even in Algeria)

By Frantz Fanon, on Karl Marx, 1821

I. Karl Marx

Poetry and all that.

Activism.

More scientific writings later.

Be activist but Jewish.

I also mean be activist.

II. Frantz Fanon

Re-reading in blatant mis-readings in fact Sartre I have come up with this style –

Sartre criticizes a lot and so on. I just decided to be a Marxist and talk.

I also mean talk intellectually.

I also add a Sartre only style. I keep arguing that Sartre is wrong. I also mean it is just a way of being literary. I just criticize Sartre and become more Marxist.
